STATEMENT THAT THIS IS A TAX RETURN
NOT A FINANCIAL STATEMENT

The accompanying federal income tax return does NOT constitute a financial statement. We have not audited, reviewed or compiled the accompanying income tax return and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on it.

An income tax return is not intended to constitute financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, it does not necessarily include all financial information or disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles. If the omitted financial information or disclosures were included with the tax return, they might influence the users’ conclusions about the taxpayer’s financial position, results of operations and cash flows. Accordingly, this income tax return is not designed to be used in lieu of financial statements.

RECORD RETENTION

Our policy is to dispose of our copies of tax returns and workpapers, and other tax information that is more than eight years old.

Your responsibility for retention of your own tax records varies, depending upon the type of tax return or other information involved. We suggest that you keep your tax information and supporting documents for a minimum of eight years. We also recommend that you keep all records that pertain to a carryover amount, such as net operating loss carryovers and charitable contribution carryovers as well as capital loss carryovers, until eight years after the carryover has been consumed.

Also, we suggest that you maintain, indefinitely, copies of income tax returns, records supporting your tax basis in your personal, investment, and business assets, and documentation pertaining to gifts that you make. Your copies of the returns are enclosed for your files. We suggest that you retain these copies indefinitely.
