About

Stephen is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist with over 28 years of experience in the field of mental health. Known for his depth of experience and thoughtful approach, he provides care to individuals, couples, and first responders, particularly those impacted by trauma or substance use disorders, using evidence-based practices. Stephen supports patients across multiple care settings within the hospital, ensuring access to services where they are most needed.

Throughout his career, Stephen has contributed to both for-profit and non-profit organizations, offering leadership in management, program development, and therapeutic services. His work reflects a strong commitment to supporting patients through complex challenges with professionalism and care. Outside of work, Stephen enjoys traveling, flying radio-controlled helicopters, and cross-training.
